

D.C. Commission on Aging
Wednesday, April 18, 2018
10:00 a.m.
AGENDA

The Mission of the D.C. Commission on Aging is to advise the Executive Director, Office on Aging, the Mayor, the D.C. Council, and the general public on the needs and concerns of elderly D.C. resident (age 60+), incidents of bias against the aged in the administration of the laws of the District of Columbia, and cases of neglect and abuse of the aged, including financial exploitation. As such, the Commissioners serve as advocates on behalf of the District's nearly 108,000 elderly residents.

- I. Call to Order
- II. Special Announcement
- III. Review and Approval of Minutes Commissioners
- IV. Presentations
  - a. D.C. Office on Aging Update Laura Newland
D.C. Office on Aging
  - b. Age-Friendly City Update Garret King
D.C. Office on Aging
  - c. Right Care, Right Now Initiative Deputy Fire Chief John Donnelly
Fire and EMS
- V. New Business
- VI. Committee Reports
  - a. Governance
  - b. Elder Abuse and Financial Exploitation Commissioner Carolyn Nicholas
  - c. Transportation Commissioner Charles Hicks
  - d. Education and Employment Commissioner Brenda Willoughby
  - e. Housing Commissioner Marguerite Pridgen
  - f. Health and Wellness
- VII. Ward Reports

VIII. Public Comment

IX. Announcements

X. Adjournment