†The consent calendar is for board actions on routine or non-controversial matters that do not require discussion or debate. Any board member may request at any time prior to the consent calendar vote to remove an item from the consent calendar, whereupon it will be placed on the regular agenda for discussion and a separate vote. Board members take a single vote to “approve all items on the consent calendar.” Prior to this vote, all recusals will be stated for the record and a board member recused from a specific matter on the consent calendar shall be deemed to have not voted on that matter.
