Agenda Item: Comments from the Public

- James Harris introduced himself as a representative of Headbangers Boxing and DPR Boxing, greeting the group and stating his affiliation.
- Ricky Womack introduced himself and noted his affiliations with PVA Boxing, USA Boxing, and the Dr. McKnight Tournament, adding that his involvement extends across many related areas. Ricky expressed his appreciation for the support provided, noting that funding had been given for an event at Barry Farms. He explained that the original request covered multiple events, but only one was funded. When the initial date was rained out, the allocated funds were shifted to make the Barry Farms event possible.
- Demarcus Corley shared that his son, Derek Bryant, is launching a promotion company called BBB, which stands for Bringing Boxing Back. The company plans to host a celebrity exhibition boxing event featuring YouTube streamers, retired professional boxers, and other content creators. He noted that Nate Campbell will participate in an exhibition match from Florida, and Randall Bailey—whom Corley previously fought—will also be on the card. Corley himself will take part, along with additional YouTube streamers who will compete in their own exhibition bouts.
